An announcement of the job vacancy of Deputy Manager for Information and Communication Technology Project (ICTP) at Ministry of Higher Education.

The minimum qualifications required:

At least 3 years of experience in one of the Information and Communication Technology Projects or the relevant projects

Highly qualified persons; preferably those who have a Ph.D. in Computer or Communication Engineering, Computing and Information or Sciences (from the relevant departments).

Good experience in managing programs of multiple projects and axes; preferably previous experience in the field of learning.

Good experience in the procedures of tenders and good knowledge of Law No. 89 in 1998.

The ability to develop and implement new emerging projects.

Job Description:

Participating in implementing and updating the strategic plan of ICTP at Ministry of Higher Education.

Following up the teamwork at the project headquarter.

Communicating with the executive directors of ICTP at 22 universities effectively.

Communicating with the managers of the centered projects (9 projects).

Following up tenders and its special committees.

Following up the implementation of the recommendations of the supervising committees and the project national committee.

Working Hours and Place:
Five-days a week at the headquarter of the project, with the possibility of traveling abroad or inside the Republic for short periods

Advantages:

Good monthly remuneration in addition to all financial and medical benefits as well as all other university rights.

C.V., its attached documents (Certificates of Experience, etc), as well as a mini electronic proposal to develop the ICTP plan in the universities (3 pages at most) shall be sent to info@ictp.edu.eg in no later than the end of November 2012.